Methodist Ladies' College Position Description

Position:	Education Outdoors Teacher - MLC Banksia
Reports to:	Director of MLC Banksia
Department:	MLC Banksia
Date:	November 2021

At MLC, we are committed to providing a challenging, enriching and supportive learning environment, which develops confident and articulate young women who have the skills, knowledge, values and attitudes needed to shape their future and contribute meaningfully to the international community.

MLC is committed to remain at the forefront of education and maintain our Christian heritage while respecting the spirituality and other faiths of our community.

MLC is committed to providing an environment where diversity is valued and differences are recognised and respected.

Primary Purpose

MLC teachers are responsible for creating and maintaining effective learning environments which supports the learning needs of the students.

MLC teachers are organised, structured, enthusiastic and passionate about the potential of their students. They are life-long learners themselves who model excellent learning and who develop positive professional relationships with their students and colleagues and skilfully develop relevant, structured, learning opportunities with clear time-frames and deadlines, where process as well as content is made explicit and where students are encouraged to demonstrate their learning in a variety of ways and in a variety of settings.

'Excellent teachers have the capacity to transform the lives of students and to inspire and nurture their development as learners, individuals and citizens'
(Melbourne Declaration of Educational Goals for Young Australians).

Position in Context

MLC is one of Australia's most respected and innovative schools, with over 2,200 students from our Early Learning Centre (MLC Kindle) to Year 12, including international students and boarders. MLC is a technology rich environment, teaching staff and students from Prep have their own iPads/notebook computers.

MLC is comprised of four relatively autonomous schools: Junior School (MLC Kindle – Year 6), Junior Secondary School (Years 7 and 8), Middle School (Years 9 and 10) and Senior School (Years 11 and 12). Years 7 to 12 teachers are expected to teach across at least two schools. The Senior School program offers a comprehensive curriculum including the Victorian Certificate of Education (VCE), International Baccalaureate (IB) and Vocational Education and Training (VCE - VET). Teachers may be expected to teach across these programs.

MLC teachers work in a learning community and are expected to establish and maintain positive relationships with staff and students. They are expected to be life-long learners and to participate in the Professional Learning Program.

MLC teachers work in a technology rich environment and are expected to integrate a range of technologies in their practice to support student learning.

Student wellbeing and student learning are intricately linked and rely on teachers having knowledge and understanding of the physical, social and intellectual development and characteristics of students from diverse linguistic, cultural, religious and socioeconomic backgrounds. All teachers are responsible for the wellbeing of students in their classrooms. In addition to classroom teachers every student has a designated teacher directly responsible for her wellbeing. MLC teachers are expected to be responsible for a home group or tutor group role in the Student Wellbeing program if required.

Teachers at MLC are allocated duties and are expected to attend camps, meetings, professional development and other events as determined by the College.

MLC Banksia

MLC Banksia is a 30 acre property, located on the Banksia Peninsula and on the Gippsland Lakes in East Gippsland, Victoria. Access to the property is by vehicle (20 mins to Bairnsdale or 15 mins to Paynesville). The property provides residential housing for staff and a variety of hard top accommodation for student programs.

Eleven residential and day staff, comprising of teachers, educational support staff and in addition supported by various specialist casual staff, work within a strong team to ensure the delivery of a curriculum-based program for Year 5 – 8 students. Students spend 4 – 6 days at the semi-remote MLC Banksia site, utilising the Gippsland Lakes and the local environment to participate in a range of curriculum based learning activities within the class or home group community.

MLC Banksia staff also support the expedition component of the 8 week MLC Marshmead Program for Year 9 students. MLC Marshmead is a 114 hectare property, located on a remote and environmentally sensitive site in far eastern Victoria, surrounded by the Croajingolong National Park. The property includes a residential village (consisting of both staff and student housing) and a working farm. Education Outdoors programs conducted at MLC Banksia provide a sequential link into the MLC Marshmead experience, compliment both college curriculum and wellbeing programs respective to the year level and provide essential learning experiences in and about the outdoors within the foci of Personal Sustainability, Sustainable Communities, Environmental Sustainability and skills development.

Professional Practice

MLC teachers demonstrate their breadth and influence in four settings: their own professional learning, their work with the students they teach, their work with colleagues and their work with the wider school community. All of these settings relate to their impact on student learning.

Through their practice and professional experiences, MLC teachers will:

1. Expand their understanding of content and how students learn using research and workplace knowledge.
2. Develop and select effective teaching strategies to suit the physical, social and intellectual need development and characteristics, address the learning strengths and needs of students from diverse linguistic, cultural, religious or socio-economic backgrounds and address the needs of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander (ATSI) student and support the participation and learning of students with disabilities.
3. Support, work and model with colleagues the review, development and implementation of effective learning and teaching programs, including literacy and numeracy programs and programs that use Information Communication Technologies (ICT) and effective learning and teaching strategies to address underachievement across the full range of abilities.
4. Use a range of data including student feedback and student assessment collected over time to analyse the progress of students and review learning and teaching strategies.
5. Develop a culture of high expectations for all students.
6. Create opportunities and work with colleagues to engage parent, caregivers and the community in their children's learning.

7. Support the understanding and implementation of government, sector and school policies or priorities in the school community including concerned with student wellbeing and safety and professional ethics and responsibilities.
8. Share learning goals with students and assess their progress using a range of assessment strategies and provide regular targeted feedback to students to progress their own learning and report on student progress to parents and caregivers.
9. Evaluate and moderate learning and teaching programs and student progress and reports with colleagues using a range of data and artefacts of their learning.
10. Plan professional learning in the context of the National Professional Standards for Teachers and consideration of relevant research and initiate and engage in professional learning with colleagues to evaluate professional learning and the effectiveness of their learning and teaching.
11. Contribute to professional networks in the school and wider education community.

The MLC professional practice standards are largely based on the revised National Professional Standards for Teachers (Australian Institute for Teaching and School Leadership, 2011). Within these standards at MLC, there are specific levels of performance for Graduate, Accomplished, Expert and Exemplary teachers.
